WACC meeting notes 10/19/17

Present: Claire Novosad (chair), Richard Zipoli, Marie McDaniel, Wes O’Brien, Pina Palma, Robert Forbus, Sanja Grubacic, and Elizabeth Kalbfleisch

We welcomed our new members!

A handout of the bylaws and “Why would we want to revise the program” was distributed. We briefly discussed the duties of the committee. We also discussed the motion that was approved by WACC and UCF regarding committee membership at the beginning of this year.

We discussed the current writing program, and the distinction between ‘writing to learn’ and learning to write. This was facilitated by the powerpoint Liz presented to the UCF at the end of the spring semester.

Marie presented results from the writing survey sent out to faculty members a few weeks ago (the data are preliminary).

We will look at the draft proposal the committee worked on last year and the general goal of academic literacy for the next meeting.

Respectfully presented to the UCF,
Claire Novosad
